Sen. Douglas, Hoodlum Priest, TV Stars, Rides At 4-Day Celebration

A gala four-day weekend with "something for everyone" will unfold tomorrow evening in Wilson Park with activities ranging from a band concert and speeches to rides and concessions under way through Labor Day.

The festival, sponsored by the two area Rock Club chapters, is designed to provide Quad-Cityans with a "final fling" close to home before summer ends, a spokesman reported.

Speakers will include Sen. Paul Douglas, State Representative Ralph E. Smith and Patrice Dismas Clark, S.J., Capt. 11 and Jo-Jo, the television comedy team, also have been billed. Congressman Melvin Price is sought but has not yet confirmed an appearance.

Concessions and rides for adults and youngsters alike will open their turnstiles at 6 p.m. tomorrow near the 28th and State street area of the park.

Children's Matinee
Captain 11 and his partner will be on hand for a special "children's matinee" starting at 2 p.m. Saturday. From 1 to 4 that afternoon youngsters will be admitted on "rides" for 10 cents a turn, lower than the regular prices.

With the park pool due to be closed for the winter after Labor Day, swimmers will have their last chance to splash this weekend. The pool will be open from 1 to 9 p.m.

Dancing in the street will be the attraction for teenagers from 7:30 to 10:30 p.m. Saturday at 29th street in front of Nidringham school. Music will be supplied by a rock and roll band.

In addition to rides and concessions and family picnics in the park on Sunday, an inter-city baseball game will start at 2:30 p.m. between Granite City Sacred Heart and Troy.

Sunday Attraction
Another Sunday attraction will be Father Clark, who gained fame through his work in rehabilitating parolees and "prison" criminals and will speak at the bandstand at 3 p.m.

The "hoodlum" priest — the Hollywood movie star that name was his life story — has spent 25 years as a worker for better rehabilitation of parolees and criminals. Dismas House, in St. Louis, has served as refuge and home for many.

Union Starch Workers Approve New Agreement

Union Starch & Refining Co. workers, members of the Oil, Chemical and Atomic Workers International Union Local 7433, today accepted a company offer of wage increases averaging 10 cents an hour and reclassification of certain jobs, heading off a threatened strike at the local plant.

In balloting conducted at the Labor Temple last night and this morning, 134 workers voted to accept the offer and 24 voted against it. Russell Godevin, union president, said the fight turned out probably was because the proposal was generally acceptable to the workers, and many felt it would pass without their vote. About 350 members of the local are employed at the plant.

Hourly rates for job classifications falling in labor grades one through six will be raised nine cents an hour under the new agreement; workers in grades seven through nine will get a 10-cent raise. The new rates for labor grades 10 and 11 will go up 11 cents hourly, and all grade 12 workers will see an increase of 12 cents an hour.

Classification Changes

In addition to the wage increases, eight labor classifications were raised to higher grades. Six of these are in the refinery department, and one in the starch department, according to John Johnson, vice-president and plant manager.

Under terms of the agreement, both the wage increases and the higher job classifications are retroactive. The hourly rate changes will be effective from July 24.

McBride said negotiations will begin about Nov. 1 on a new contract for the coming year. The current pact expires Dec. 31.

The workers had approved a strike last week by a vote of 305 to 34 in a special election held in front of the plant entrance on 19th street.

74 DAYS WITHOUT QUAD-CITY TRAFFIC DEATH

A site on the east bank of the Chain of Rocks canal near the Quad-City diversion canal was proposed this week as one of four possible areas for a $600,000 space flight laboratory for the National Aeronautics and Space Administration.

The site for the proposed laboratory, which is to employ about 3000 persons and will be used for the development of scientific and scientific development, would contain 1000 acres and extend from the north end of the Chain of Rocks canal east to U.S. Highway 67 and for about a mile to the drainage canal near Hartford.

Announcement of the four possible sites was made yesterday by the Chamber of Commerce of Metropolitan St. Louis. The others are near Dupo in St. Clair county, the Columbia Bolinas north of St. Louis, and a location near St. Charles, Mo.

Alteration At Hearing

An alteration during a city council meeting public hearing Monday night resulted in three charges being filed by Granite City Fourth Ward Alderman Paul Rutledge against a city street department employee, Ray Butler, 47, of 2322 Adams street.

The incident, in which Rutledge's eyeglasses were knocked to the floor, occurred during an argument over a truck traffic on Adams street, and was witnessed by more than 60 persons who were present at the hearing.

Conducted by the Traffic Committee, the hearing was presided over by Mayor Magistrate Gasparovic yesterday in answer to Rutledge's charges of creating a disturbance, disturbing a council meeting session and assault and battery. He was released on bond for a hearing Sept. 13.

The hearing had been under way for about an hour when the altercation took place about

Storm Water Is Blamed For Breaks

City To Enforce Law With $300-$500 Fines; Repairs To Continue

Enforcement of a five-year-old ordinance which prohibits dumping of storm water into the Nameoki area a sanitary sewer system was approved Monday night as recommended by Mayor Davis, who said the action would prevent frequent breaks in the lines, which this year have cost $147,000 to repair.

Council members voted authorization for the mayor to assign the city inspector and an engineer the task of inspecting the entire system, already underway, to determine locations where surface and storm water may be entering the sanitary system. The ordinance provides for penalties of not less than $300 and not more than $500 for persons or firms found in violation.

Mayor Davis told council members he had received a report that a sewer line had broken near the intersection of Morgan and Edwards streets, which had damaged the system. The damage would continue as long as storm water was permitted to enter the lines.

Alderman Halted

Alderman Walter G. Gabrielle was ruled out of order by Mayor Davis as he requested employment of an outside consultant engineer to study the area of the breaks and test sections of pipes being removed. Davis said the apparent cause had been determined and he saw no reason to go to additional expense of hiring a consultant.

Outlining his remedial program, Gabrielle said that would be sent this weekend to all persons and firms connected with the Nameoki system.

Area Site Proposed For Space Flight Laboratory

A site on the east bank of the Chain of Rocks canal near the Quad-City diversion canal was proposed this week as one of four possible areas for a $600,000 space flight laboratory for the National Aeronautics and Space Administration.

Site Requirements
The NASA, which set forth a list of site requirements, also listed the characteristics of the area. Location of the laboratory along the canal would result in the growth of the Quad-City area, local civic and business leaders point out. Employment of about 3000 persons and scientific technicians and scientists as well as office workers and maintenance workers.

Scientists working at the laboratory will have as their goal the routing of a man to the moon by 1970, and it is estimated that $50,000,000 will be spent to achieve the objective. The space lab will not be used for space shots or rocket testing. Site requirements specified by NASA include:

$1,426,000 County 5-Month Budget Includes Deficit

In line with the operation of many of its departments, the Madison county government has decided to switch its fiscal year, while simultaneously continuing a search for ways of balancing its budget. The result is a proposed five-month budget of $1,426,000, announced Monday.

The short budget is described as a "desperation" measure limited in scope because of a reduction in the expected general tax rate.

It shows an operating deficit of 12 months were listed, and then five-twelfths of these figures were included in the budget. The total $1,426,000 in special tax fund disbursements and $594,294 in general operating expenses. Capital spending was reduced, maintenance work cut and no allowance made for equipment failures.

The county has operated throughout its history on a fiscal year beginning Aug. 1 and ending July 31. The change to a calendar year conforms to operation of the federal assistance program, employee retirement contributions, county tax levies, and the state highway and bridge projects, it was noted.

Under the plan, the five-month budget unveiled this week, the finance committee is drafting a hearing continuing for another 30 minutes before it was adjourned. Meyer said the requests and complaints made by the individuals would be studied by the committee recommendations would be submitted to the council. A transcript is being prepared.

Under consideration are requests for an extension of one-way traffic on Benton street from 24th to 27th street, a return to one-way traffic on State street between 21st and 24th streets and one-side parking on narrow north-south streets carrying heavy traffic.

The committee, composed of Aldermen Meyer, Estill, V. O. Smith and Walter Norwood, heard comments pro and con for the one-way street proposals and the one-side parking restriction plan for congested two-way streets.

"We'll study the transcript and make recommendations at a later date," Meyer said.

GC School Cafeteria Contract Signed Today

Signing of a new two-year agreement for Granite City school district cafeteria employees took place this morning at the school office. It was based on the terms of the old contract agreed to by both the school board and union membership last week.

The contract includes a seven-cent hourly raise in 1961-62 and an additional five cents an hour in 1962-63. Those at the signing today were Board President Robert Spengler, Board Secretary George Eubanks, Bureau Service Employees' Local 98 President Ray Edwards, Local 98 Business Agent Conrad Moller and Supt. Harold M. Kalber.

No further developments in custodial contract negotiations have been reported. The talks are expected to await meetings of the local and board in September.

Medical Building Being Erected At Belmore Site

Construction of a new four-story medical building began Tuesday at the Belmore Village shopping center site with initial groundbreaking by S. M. Wilson & Co., contractors who designed the structure.

The one-story brick building will cover 110x52-ft. at 311 and Myrtle avenues when completed in about 90 days. A spokesman for Reese Drug Co., developers of the center, said the four occupants would be doctors but may not be general practitioners.

The $55,000 building is of modern design and will be occupied on a rental basis. A 20-car lot is being built with space on the east and west sides of the building for parking.

Each occupant will have a suite containing waiting room, examining office, doctor's office, business office, laboratory, rest room and storage space.

The building will be air conditioned and gas heated. It will face Myrtle avenue. No groundbreaking ceremonies were held.

Farrell Family Still In Missouri Hospitals

All six members of the Stanley Farrell family, injured in a head-on collision of two autos Saturday while returning from a camping expedition in the Missouri Ozarks, are still hospitalized with two described as in "serious" condition by local doctors.

The family, whose local address is 1232 Clark avenue, was in three different Missouri hospitals after the home-crushing accident on U.S. Highway 67 east of Kingsland, Mo. Four were first listed in critical condition.

Stanley Farrell, 39, was in serious condition today at Callaway County Memorial Hospital, Fulton, Mo., with a fractured right arm, chest injuries and multiple bruises.

Mrs. Stanley Farrell, 31, was in serious condition at Jefferson City Memorial Hospital, Jefferson City, Mo. She suffered an apparent concussion and remained in a coma for more than 48 hours, relatives said. She will undergo surgery for a fractured right elbow and is being treated for chest injuries.

Two children, Stanley Jr., eight, and Philip, two, both at St. Elizabeth Hospital, Columbia, are "doing well with a tremendous change for the better," relatives reported.

Two other children, Linda, 13, and Alice, 11, also at the Fulton Hospital, are doing well. (Continued on Page 3, Col. 1)

10-Point Program Holiday Traffic Safety Plan Outlined By Police

A cooperative holiday safety program with local, county and state police participating is being undertaken throughout Illinois, including the local Quad-City area, in an all-out effort to curb traffic fatalities during the 78-hour Labor Day holiday weekend.

State Police of Madison 11 Capt. Emil Toftant said this week that all state troopers will be on duty and will operate every available radar unit, assisted by local and county authorities in patrolling all public roads.

"The emphasis is on safety, radar units will be set up in the most troublesome spots," Capt. Toftant said. The state also is making available in an emergency in aid of safety patrols and officers of the secretary of state's office will be on duty.

Locally, the police chiefs are stressing not only safety for the holiday weekend, but also the reopening of schools after the holiday weekend. Public schools in Madison and Venice opened this week and the Granite City public schools and all area parochial schools will open next Tuesday.

10 Points of Safety
A 10-point safety program for safe driving during the holiday period was outlined today by the local police chiefs.

(1)—Don't Speed. Speed is the number one highway killer and the average driver is actually helping at 65 to 70 miles an hour.

(2)—Concentrate. There is no margin for error on today's high-speed highways. Be mentally prepared for the unexpected.

(3)—Don't Drink. Just as speed is the top highway killer, so are rear-end collisions. The number one cause of auto accidents.

Medical Building $1,166,331 GC Levy Proposed: Up $231,600

Expected To Boost City Tax Rate To 78-80 Cents Per $100 Valuation

A 78 to 80-cent city tax rate, up 11 to 13 cents from last year's 67-cent rate is likely for Granite City property owners, as the council Monday night passed on first reading a $1,166,371 tax levy ordinance, which is $231,614 higher than the previous year's $934,757 levy.

The exact amount of the 1961 city tax rate, to be collected next year on $100 assessed valuation, will be set early next year, after the county board of review considers the $1,474,700 total valuation at the close of August.

Also, the city's tax levy ordinance is subject to change when submitted for adoption at the next regular council session on Tuesday evening after Labor Day.

However, a resolution setting the rate for maintenance of sewers under the special tax levy was approved last year's general operation was financed extensively in the amount of $180,000. The tax rate for sewer maintenance will be about 54 cents.

Sale Tax Reserve
Last year, the $804,757 tax levy represented a cut of $114,014 from the $1,048,771 levied in 1960, but last year's general operation was financed extensively in the amount of $180,000.

The city's sales tax reserve, with a balance of only $18,000 expected at the close of August, will not be available because of high expenditures on Nameoki street sewer line breaks and repairs to the 51-inch trunk along 20th street.

John Doohoe explained that without the sales tax reserve for general operating expenses, each department is being forced to levy nearly the full amount of its new budget. This year's budget totals $1,500,649.

He pointed out that the $285,019 specified as being on hand from other sources for the estimated $143,515 cost of operating the street department, each department is being forced to levy nearly the full amount of its new budget. This year's budget totals $1,500,649.

CHECKING CREDENTIALS upon arrival at Lakeside Airport yesterday were Airport Manager Omar Midyett (left), Judge Russell Rodman of Cherokee, Ia., (center) and Jay Perry of Mangum, Okla. (right). The visitors had just completed 480-mile flight from Oklahoma City as their part in a coast-to-coast Silver Wings air race for pilots with at least 25 years' flight experience. Between them, Midyett, Judge Rodman and Perry have been flying a total of 118 years.

Silver Wings Event

480-Mile Segment Of Coast-to-Coast Air Race Ends Wednesday At Lakeside

Two light planes touched down at Lakeside Airport shortly after 4:30 p.m. yesterday, completing their segment of a coast-to-coast air race being staged by the Silver Wings Fraternity, a group of aviation enthusiasts who each have at least 25 years of flying experience.

And when Airport Manager Omar Midyett, a Silver Wings member himself, stepped out to the ramp to greet the arriving pilots, 118 years of pilot know-how had been gathered together in one spot.

One of the arriving pilots was Judge Russell Rodman, 68, of Cherokee, Ia., who soloed 48 years ago, and 41 years of experience was represented by Jay Perry, 59, a special assistant to U. S. Senator Mike Monroney, and a resident of Mangum, Okla.

Five Longest Leg

The pair, accompanied by co-pilots and two young girls "taking for the gingerbread ride," according to Perry, had just completed a 480-mile flight from Oklahoma City. This was the longest leg in the coast-to-coast race which began last Saturday in Oakland, Calif., and will end on Labor Day in New York City. Lakeside was the official touchdown point for the two flyers, who had been at the controls of Piper Comanches, a Midyett, as a member of Silver Wings and a flyer since 1932, was acting as local race committee.

He handed Judge Rodman and Perry the official race register as the two alighted, since the relay is timed from takeoff to landing on each segment.

Race Continues Today
This morning, Perry and the judge turned over their race credentials to Kent Boyd of Kansas City, Mo., and Nelson Weber of Springfield, Ill. The new participants then took off for Springfield in their own aircraft, leaving the next "hop" in a race held to commemorate the 50th anniversary of the first coast-to-coast eastward flight, made by Bob Fowler of San Jose, Calif., in 1911. Fowler was official starter of the race this year.

In the party which flew here from Oklahoma City were Chuck Testroet, Judge Rodman's co-pilot; Eldon Stout of Tulsa, Okla., Perry's co-pilot; and Marcia Hopping and Virginia Bennett, both of Oklahoma City.

Rainy Landing
The planes landed at Lakeside in a heavy rainstorm which began shortly after Midyett first established radio contact with them.

The rain lasted just a few minutes, however, and the pilots and passengers were able to alight in a dry state.

Perry said the flight was an uneventful one, and that weather conditions were near-perfect until they reached the local airport. One of the first comments by the racing party after arriving here was the amount of humidity yesterday. "There's nothing like this in Oklahoma City," said Miss Bennett.

Local Industry, Labor Urge Safety Campaign

Local industrial and labor union officials are cooperating with city, county and state authorities in an attempt to make Quad-Cities area motorists aware of the hazards of driving during the upcoming holiday weekend.

Employees of the Dow Metal Products Co. and the A. O. Smith Corp. have received more than 800 "Holiday Alert" safety kits, made available by the Illinois Department of Public Safety. The kits consist of small American flags and red banners proclaiming "Traffic Condition RED."

When displayed on the radio antennas of employees' automobiles, the plastic pennants will serve to call other drivers' attention to the dangers of holiday traffic.

In addition to giving out the pennants, the Dow Metal Products Co. is conducting a traffic safety check lane for workers' autos again this year.

Edwin Reiske, president of the Tri-Cities Trades and Labor Council, issued a statement this week urging all union members and their families to help make the Labor Day weekend a safe holiday.

"Let's remember the spirit and purpose of Labor's own holiday by putting an end to the slaughter on our highways," he said. "Remember safe driving, practices and courtesy on the road as you drive this weekend."

Quad-Cities Not Involved By Bricklayer Strike

Quad-Cities construction will not be affected by a bricklayers' strike which appears imminent in nine surrounding communities, a Southern Illinois Contractors Association spokesman said today.

The Association's contract with East St. Louis Local 30 of the bricklayers' union expires at midnight today, and the union already has rejected an offer which the contractors said was their "last and final" one. Quad-City area bricklayers belong to Local 65, with a contract which started Aug. 1 under an automatic renewal clause in the old pact.

The threatened strike involves East St. Louis, Collinsville, Cahokia, Waterloo, Troy, Edwardsville, National City, Brooklyn and Columbia.

Grand Jury To Meet

A recall session for the May term circuit court grand jury will begin Tuesday in Edwardsville. The 23 jurors will hear 27 criminal cases and will meet Tuesday through Friday every morning at 9:30 until all cases are heard, according to the Office of State's Atty. Dick H. Madge Jr.

Backs 'Pat,' Line Worries At Madison

The football season has not started and practice has not even included contact work yet, but Madison Coach Glen Pickering is already plagued by injuries.

Faced with problems of finding line replacements for last year's graduates, "Pick" has tagged the center position as his No. 1 concern. Debert Clemens, who saw some limited action last season, was Pickering's choice to fill the bill.

Clemens fell Tuesday while running and banged up his knee. Latest reports have him sidelined for at least four practice sessions, which will make it hard for him to get in the required 14 workouts before the first game Sept. 15 at home against Edwardsville.

"Pick" and Assistant Coaches Joe Asperger and Bob Page greeted 70 candidates at practice Monday, including 30 freshmen. Page will devote most of this time to working with the first-year men.

Of the 45 varsity hopefuls, only seven are returning lettermen. Despite the small number of returnees, Pickering has almost a "pat hand" in the backfield with three starters back. Quarterback Mickey Gravelle is around, as well as All-Conference Halfback Ken Griggs. And Terry Andrews at fullback is an able "mail carrier."

Griggs, who broke his ankle during the summer baseball season, is out for practices but not able to run at his top speed. Pickering points out that Sam Hise will be small, with Sam Dymas, weighing in at 215, anchoring the front wall at the right tackle position. Another returnee, Walt Cooper, who played end last year, has been working out with the backfield crew. That leaves the right end position up for grabs if Cooper is switched permanently to the backfield.

Charles Kosak, who did not letter in 1950 but did see some action, will have first shot at the left end slot.

Contact Work Today

This afternoon, the varsity candidates will get their first taste of contact plus the daily routine of going over plays. Going downfield under punts and returning punts also are scheduled on the day's slate.

Saturday workouts and Labor Day practice are on tap for the team.

"Pick" noted that it has been quite hot for the first three

Dr. A. D. Intriere To Open Offices Here

Dr. Anthony D. Intriere, who limits his practice to internal medicine, has moved to Granite City and will conduct his appointments practice temporarily in the offices of Drs. David Friedman and Alan Skirball, 1322a N. Dearborn avenue. He is planning to lease space in a new medical center under construction at Bellemeade Village shopping center.

Dr. Intriere, his wife and four children moved here a few days ago from Olney, Ill., and are residing at 3270 Franklin avenue. He began accepting appointments this week.

He is a graduate of the University of Michigan Medical School, class of 1918, and served his internship at New Rochelle, N. Y. Hospital. Post-graduate training was at the Cleveland O. clinic, where he was a Fellow in internal medicine from 1933 to 1935, and at the Labey Clinic, Boston, Mass., where he was a Fellow in Gastroenterology from 1935 to 1936.

Dr. Intriere has served with the U. S. Army Medical Corps in the rank of captain, both in this country and in Europe from 1945 to 1947.

He is a member of the American Medical Society, Illinois State Medical Society, American Society of Physicians and an associate of the American College of Physicians and an associate Fellow of the American College of Gastroenterology.

For the past five years, Dr. Intriere has been an active member of the Department of Internal Medicine of the Weber Medical Clinic at Olney.

Spalding Has Big Evening At Speedway

Madison's Wilb Spalding nearly swept the boards clean in super-modified stock car competition Tuesday night at the Tri-City Speedway here, winning the 25-lap feature event and grabbing honors as the fastest qualifier of the evening and winning a special handicap race for the six fastest qualifying cars.

Winners of heat races in the fastest classifications were Dave Hollis of Granite City and Kenney Range of Cahokia. Hollis and Range finished 2-3 behind Spalding in the qualifying runs, where the Madison driver cut within 1/100th of a second of tying the existing lap record of 15.78.

Five Flips
Officials said the track was exceptionally fast, and proved it by awarding five "upside-down" trophies to drivers who flipped their cars during the 10-event program.

In the amateur class, Ron Thompson of St. Louis captured a 15-lap feature and one heat race, while the other heat was won by Bill Howard.

Chuck Cardwell of St. Louis was the Fender-Bender class feature race winner, and he, too, took a heat race in this classification. Donnie Smith won the other Fender-Bender preliminary.

Next Tuesday, the speedway has billed special lengthened feature races in all three classes, to be highlighted by a 50-lap modified main event which will serve as a tune-up for the 150-lap national championship race scheduled here on Sept. 12.

At Danville Saturday

Moose Edge Graniteers For Regional Title; Advance To State Tournament

One run made the difference in all three Class B regional games played here this week to determine a local entrant in the Amateur Softball Association's state tournament at Danville.

And Moose Club 272, proving that its recently won title in the local B league was no fluke, is the Granite City club which will go on to the state finals.

Moose clipped the Graniteers Tuesday night at Wilson Park in the title game, 5-4, after winning by one run in the first round Monday evening from Union Starch and Refining Co., 3-2. The Graniteers had advanced the same evening by slipping past Modern Furnace, 6-4.

Graniteers Close Gap
The B regional champs apparently sewed up the championship with a five-run second inning Tuesday night, but the Graniteers made it a tingling finish by scoring all four of their runs in the bottom of the seventh before Bill Fawler, the Moose starter and winning pitcher, managed to put out the fire.

John Lipinski, the loser, blanked the Moose after the big morning. The Redmen are holding two-day workouts prior to the opening of classes next Tuesday.

Graduation gap-filling apparently will be no problem as the tackle positions, where Sullivan has four returning lettermen—Wm. Johnson, Don Pundell, Terry Tittsworth and Mike Voorhees. Voorhees and Quarterback Lierman are the only juniors in the team among the 19 numeral winners from 1960.

Ends with experience include Doug Little, Quentin Hoover and Jerry Seirs, while lettermen guard starting berths are Dan Ham and Bob Kary. Bob Cruse, who divided his time between center and guard last year, is concentrating on the former position this fall.

Not to be counted out yet are 70 other varsity aspirants, including 25 juniors and seniors who were not letter winners in 1960. Sullivan has 15 days to prepare for the opening game with Assumption on Sept. 15.

About 12 workouts are planned between now and that date, plus a couple of night-time drills to help familiarize players with artificial lighting conditions.

All nine Warrior games this fall will be under the lights.

Warrior Harriers To Get Equipment
Granite City high school cross-country Coach Dick Harmon has urged all aspirants for the squad to complete physical examinations this week.

The 1961 Warrior cross-country schedule will be drawn up next Friday, and Harmon said he will issue equipment to prospective harriers Tuesday immediately after classes. Completed physical examination cards must be turned in before runners can draw their togs, he said.

second, but the damage was done. Both clubs had eight hits and played errorless softball.

The Moose won moved that team into the second round of the tournament. The squad will make its debut at 3:30 p.m. Saturday at Ellsworth Park in Danville, meeting the winner of a first-round game between runners-up from the Springfield and Strasburg regions.

A Saturday victory for Moose would mean a quarterfinal date with the winner of the Pekin-Ramsey game, to be played to-night at 3:30 p.m. Sunday. Semifinals will be played Monday afternoon, Labor Day, and the upset and lower bracket survivors will then meet at 8 p.m. Monday for the title.

Monday Cliff-Hangers
Monday's first-round games developed into a couple of cliff-hangers, thrillers before Moose Club and the Graniteers battled their respective ways to the four-team final.

Moose Club came up with three runs in the top of the seventh to edge Union Starch and Refining Co., 3-2, and the Graniteers had to stave off the Modern Furnace rally in the holding.

ent to edge that team 6-5 in the second game.

Union Starch took a 2-0 lead over the Moose in the second inning and held it for four innings. The Moose were blanked for six frames by Oren Harrison, until the fateful seventh. Neal Melton, who gave up four hits, was the winning pitcher. Rich Briggs caught for Moose, and Dave Carnaghi for Union Starch. Harrison allowed six safeties.

Like Union Starch, Modern Furnace grabbed an early lead, 4-1, in the second game. But the Graniteers stormed back with two runs in the third and three in the fourth to take a 6-4 advantage.

Mitchell In Jam
Modern Furnace loaded the bases with nobody out in the last of the seventh. But winning Pitcher Ken Mitchell got two Modern Furnace batters to ground into force-outs at the plate before a run slipped across on an error.

Mitchell gave up five hits while the Graniteers managed eight off the slants of loser Al Mance. George Sykes caught for the Graniteers, while Dean Harrell wore the equipment for Modern Furnace.

Bill Ohlendorf Named Successor To Zahn Wells As Venice High Coach

Zahn Wells, head basketball, baseball and track coach at Venice high school for the past 15 years, has retired from those duties and accepted a seventh grade teaching position in the Venice schools, effective immediately.

Wells' successor is Bill Ohlendorf, a 1957 VHS graduate who played three years of basketball under Wells, and who assumed the coaching position with the opening of the fall semester at Venice high school this week. He is the son of Mr. and Mrs. William Ohlendorf Jr.

Official Action Sept. 5

Venice Supt. of Schools John O. Pier said the Venice school board expects to take official action as to the employment of Ohlendorf and the reassignment of Wells during its next regular meeting on Tuesday, Sept. 5.

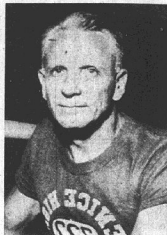

He added that board members, when contacted officially, "went along 100%" with the coaching change, which came when Wells had requested his release after Ohlendorf applied for the position.

Pier said the action was taken without official board sanction in order to fill teaching and coaching vacancies before the opening of the fall semester.

Wells had applied for a vacant seventh grade teaching position after a check showed him qualified for such a classroom position.

In Coaching 24 Years

A coach of high school athletic teams in Missouri and Illinois for the past 24 years, Wells said he does not plan to submit a formal letter of resignation to the school board. Both he and Pier said the changes were made by mutual agreement.

As long as two years ago, Wells said candidly that he planned to step out of the coaching picture at VHS if and when the school board found a suitable replacement.

A native of Marble Hill, Mo., he coached nine years at Chaffee, Mo., prior to service on the west coast in 1943-44 as a member of the Coast Guard Reserve.

He was employed in Venice as head coach and physical instructor in the high school in 1945, and his Madison-Bond-Clinton Counties Conference basketball entries won championships in 1950, 1951 and 1955.

"This coaching business pushes a fella after a certain age," said Wells, who will be 51 next month. He missed a portion of the 1959 season due to illness, and admitted having to "force myself at times."

Popular with and respected by his athletes and the student body, Wells said he will not abandon athletics altogether, but plans to "enjoy seeing a few games from the spectator's viewpoint."

New Coach 22

Ohlendorf, who graduated in August from Erskine College at Due West, S. C., with a bachelor's degree in physical education, is a Venice native and just 22 years of age.

In addition to fall baseball, winter basketball and spring track coaching duties, he also will instruct physical education classes formerly supervised by Wells.

College Freshmen Dance

Tonight At 1st GC Bank

An Informal "going to college" party and dance will be held at 8 o'clock tonight in the lobby of the First Granite City National Bank for all recent Quad-City high school graduates about to enter their first year of college.

Representatives from the University of Illinois, Southern Illinois University, Illinois State Normal University, Washington University and St. Louis University will be in attendance to talk to future students individually and answer their questions about college life.

"The colleges we contacted were really enthusiastic about this idea and said they wished all communities would work out a similar pre-college event," said R. L. Toburen, bank vice-president.

Invitations were sent to all Quad-City graduates who requested transcripts of their grades be sent to various colleges, Toburen said, and about a third said they would attend the free dance.

A display of school clothing, emphasizing fall fashions for various occasions, will be exhibited in the bank lobby through tomorrow. Local merchants supplied the clothing.

Army Engineer Corps

Replacing Levee Pumps

First of four pump replacements at the North pumping station in East St. Louis, a 900-horsepower pump with 138,300-gallons-a-minute capacity, was completed yesterday.

The Army Corps of Engineers is changing diesel-operated equipment to electrically-operated at a cost of $820,000 at the station, operated by the district.

Similar work costing about $1,000,000 in federal funds is expected to be finished in about a month at the South station, one of two four pump units complete. The other two stations operated by the district, at Venice and Cahokia already have electric pumps. The district also has four lift stations within its area.

The larger and more efficient pumping equipment is expected to reduce the chance of flood damage such as that experienced this spring in Cahokia and other areas.

Redevelopment Plans

Include Madison County

The federal Area Redevelopment Administration has approved recommendations submitted by Gov. Otto Kerner for long range economic planning for 33 counties in southern Illinois, including Madison and St. Clair, Representative Mel Price said in a telegram to the Press-Record yesterday.

Rep. Price, who supported Gov. Kerner's recommendations, said the plan was approved yesterday by William L. Batt Jr., area redevelopment administrator, making it possible for areas involved to submit requests for federal assistance on specific projects designed to provide permanent employment opportunities.

Twenty-three of the Illinois counties involved were classified by the government as depressed areas. The others, which include Madison, St. Clair and Monroe, have not been classified as depressed areas, and were not eligible for federal aid under earlier plans.

A total of 55 counties in 10 states are affected by the plan approved by the Area Redevelopment Administration yesterday.

School-Bound Children Asked To Leave Dogs Home

Pet dogs should not be allowed to follow children to school because of the danger this creates to both the animal and the child. Cecil Dant, member of the Granite City animal shelter board, warned today.

"During the carefree months of summer vacation, affection between children and dogs is most pronounced," he said. "When a new school year begins they must part, and the dog cannot understand and tries every trick in the book to go along to school."

This creates traffic hazards for the dog's owner as well as the dog. Dant points out, and adds that the dog will not be able to comprehend why he is barred from the school grounds.

"He cannot understand why some youngsters are afraid of him or that in attracting other dogs it is possible for a child to be bitten."

Dant says the problem of dogs following children to school is expected to be less serious this year than in the past, thanks to the increased use of school buses and parents driving their children to school.

Blast crabgrass before the damage is done

Give crabgrass an inch, and it'll take a yard — your yard! Once crabgrass starts to spread, it can wipe out all your spring gains. That's why it's so important to apply Clout® before the damage is done.

By treating the entire lawn evenly with the Scotts® Clout, you make sure no crabgrass escapes. But Clout attacks only crabgrass — so good grass grows merrily on. Agreed that it's worth half an hour to spare your lawn? Apply Clout now!

GOP Women Prepare Program

A panel group preparing a program to be given by the Granite City Republican Club meeting which will take place Sept. 14 at the YMCA, met Tuesday evening in the home of Mrs. Lily Chaboude, legislative chairman, 2885 Ralph street.

Mrs. Chaboude will be in charge of the program beginning at 7:30 p.m. and the discussion will be on the topic "Why Bother About Taxes?", pointing up the need for women to join and support the tax reform movement. Four members of the club will speak on various phases of the tax problem, stressing that excessive tax rates kill industry and keep the country from growing as fast as it should.

The speakers also will discuss tax legislation pending in Congress. Taking part will be Mrs. Grace Pinkston, Mrs. Vivian Davis, Mrs. Vernice Wortman and Mrs. Gayla Robertson.

The discussion is being given as a public service and all interested in taxation are invited to attend, including students and teachers.

Special attention is to be given by the club to the Dirksen Day dinner to be held at Mineral Springs Hotel in Alton on Sept. 28 at 6:30 p.m. when Secretary of State Charles E. Carpenter and Mrs. Payne Caray, clerk of the state Supreme Court, together with members of the State Republican organization are expected to attend.

Tickets may be obtained from Mrs. Wortman, ticket chairman for this area.

Moose, Spengler, Modern Furnace, Credit Union In Class B Playoffs

Spengler Insurance, behind the two-hit pitching of Evans Mack and Roy Hoffman, battled Modern Extremists 14-0 Tuesday night in Class B softball league play at Wilson Park.

The win more firmly entrenched Spengler in second place while the loss snuffed out what hopes the Extremists had for reaching post-season playoffs. The losers finished with a 6-8 record and in a three-way tie for fifth place with Club Delmar and the Graniters.

Bok Jones supplied all that was needed when he homered with two Spengler mates aboard in the fourth. The game went only five innings, with Spengler closing it out on the strength of a seven-run fifth frame.

Mank and Hoffman gave up one hit each, with Hoffman pitching the game in the fourth. John Lipski was the loser.

Last night, Granite City Steel Credit Union won an excellently pitched and played dual from Modern Furnace in the final game of the regular season, 1-0. The winners scored in the first when Mae Cook came in from third on Jerry Wintjen's double.

Cook had singled, taken second on an error and reached third on a fielder's choice.

Lower Al Mance gave up only three hits. Carroll Glisson allowed five in winning. Modern Furnace threatened in the last of the seventh when two hits placed runners at first and third with two outs. But Glisson won by retiring the last batter on a ground ball.

The Resolved Last night's game resulted in a tie for third place between Credit Union and Modern Furnace. It was resolved by a flip of a coin which gave Credit Union the third place and Modern Furnace third.

With little time for rest or preparation, the Class B playoffs will move right into the post-season games, beginning tonight.

Playoff Pairings The Credit Union (7-7) will be the season champion. Moose Club 272 (12-2) at 7. At 8:15, Spengler (11-3) will tangle with Modern Furnace.

League games previously announced for this evening have been postponed.

Tonight's Class B winners will begin a best two-out-of-three series for the playoff trophy Wednesday at 7 p.m. The second game will be played at 8:15 p.m. next Thursday, and a third game, if necessary, has been set for 7 p.m. next Friday, Sept. 8.

The church and league will begin next Tuesday at 7 o'clock, with two games set for Wednesday.

Three Titles Decided In Park Tennis

Dave Moss, John VanBuskirk and Miss Gay Mueller have won first-place trophies in three divisions of the Granite City park district's tennis tournament, while champions in six other divisions are yet to be determined.

In final of the girls' 15 singles yesterday afternoon, Miss Mueller also won in straight sets, while champion Ron Underwood said this morning.

Moss, top seeded in junior singles, had little difficulty in defeating finalist Mike Barnes Tuesday in straight sets, 6-1, 6-0. Barnes had reached the finals on a default and Moss beat Terry Rusick in the semifinals.

In final of the girls' 15 singles yesterday afternoon, Miss Mueller also won in straight sets, while champion Ron Underwood said this morning.

The most hotly-contested final battle was in the boys' 15 singles Tuesday, when VanBuskirk topped Jimmy Hillmer 6-4, 3-6, 6-1.

Finals in the boys' 15 singles are scheduled at the Wilson Park courts this afternoon. Rusty Toubour will play Jerry Walker for the title.

Underwood said boys' 15 and junior doubles also will be completed today. Finalists in the men's doubles have been determined, with Moss and Barnes opposing George Vogler and Al Malotki in a match likely to be played Friday.

Finals in the men's singles will be played Saturday. The tournament began Monday.

Group Formed To Back Simon For U.S. Senator

Announcement that State Rep. Paul Simon's hat is in the ring for the 1962 U.S. senatorial race in Illinois was made yesterday with formation of a Simon-for-Senator Committee.

Headquarters will be in Chicago, it was reported by State Sen. Robert McCarthy, Lincoln, and Walter Johnson, University of Chicago history department chairman.

Troy newspaper publisher and a four-term representative from Madison county, Simon is expected to receive opposition for the Democratic nomination from Illinois Speaker of the House Paul Powell and possibly Irving Dillard of Collinsville, a University of Illinois trustee. Sen. Everett M. Dirksen, Senate minority leader, is the likely Republican nominee to succeed himself.

In addition to Johnson, who headed the "Draft Stevenson Movement" in 1952, and Sen. McCarthy, the campaign committee will include Stanley Weinberger, a Chicago attorney, and Secretary and Robert Schuchman, of Lake county insurance executive, as treasurer. Simon also has been closely associated with Stephen Mitchell, former Democratic national chairman.

Simon is married to the former Jeanne Hurley, former state legislator from Wilmette, and they have a daughter, Sheila Jeanne, five months old. Now in his early thirties, he became a publisher at 19 and has sponsored a wide variety of legislation at Springfield.

He has written a weekly column during legislative sessions, has spoken extensively throughout Illinois and elsewhere and has traveled in five continents, visiting many world leaders. He has been awarded legislation and political science awards.

COHEN'S FOOD MARKET, 2301 Illinois avenue, currently in its fourth expansion in the last 10 years. Pictured here are workmen laying steel for the new addition to the rear of the store in West Granite. Scheduled to be finished before the first of the year, the new addition will feature added conveniences for customers.

Cohen's Begins Fourth Expansion In Decade

Cohen's Food Market at West 23rd street and Illinois avenue, is currently in its fourth expansion in the last 10 years. The latest addition will provide 3600 more square feet of sales floor space in the rear of the present building.

The new addition will increase the store's sales floor space to 12,500 square feet. A new expansion is planned along with the present expansion, which will bring new check-out counters, self-service meals, additional dairy and vegetable display space and other customer conveniences.

Expected to be completed this year, the expansion is being constructed by the Fremont Construction Co., 1101 Nineteenth street, which they claim was divinely inspired.

Memory Book Taken A memory book from a funeral home was among the loot taken by burglars from the home of a deceased Mitchell area man, it was reported yesterday.

Mrs. Hubert Browning, 4457 Highway 162, discovered the theft at the home of her father, Louis Bernick, 653 Ashland avenue, who was buried Saturday afternoon.

"They pulled all the shades and closed the venetian blinds," Mrs. Browning said. "This sort of rang a bell but I took it awhile to realize what had happened."

An electric clock was the first item discovered missing—when Mrs. Browning tried to check the time. Also taken were a satin comforter, a hand-tooled leather purse, electric percolator and toaster and lantern-type flashlight.

Many items, including the memory book, had been in a locked cedar chest which the burglar opened by breaking the hinges. Exact time of the theft could not be determined.

"The one thing we really cared about was the memory book," Mrs. Browning said. "All the cards from the flowers were in there and all the names."

Entrance was gained by prying a screen from the front door room in the rear of the house. County authorities were notified of the burglary.

Mr. Bernick, who passed away last Thursday at his home, had lived alone, his wife preceding him in death last April.

Holiday Schedule May Determine I-C Division Champs

Eight Games Over Weekend; Mercer And Hearts Play Here On Labor Day

Holiday weekends traditionally mean busy afternoons for Inter-City Baseball league clubs. The Labor Day break this year will be no exception, although none of the teams has to worry about making up rain-out dates from earlier in the summer.

Eight games will be played Sunday and Monday — four on each date — and from the diamond dust should emerge champions of both the Blue and Red divisions.

Sunday's most important contest matches Collinsville and Moose Lodge on the latter's diamond in East St. Louis. The Boosters must win to keep alive hopes for the Red division title, since the Moose lead the Boosters by two games with three playing dates remaining.

The psychological advantage would seem to lie with the Boosters, who handed Moose Lodge its first loss of the season on June 11, 9-0, after the Moose had won six straight. The Boosters were 12-3 winners on July 8, thus becoming the only club to defeat the East St. Louis entry twice this year.

To make matters more interesting, Moose and McAteer Glass of East St. Louis, currently leading the Blue division by one game, will clash in a battle of piece-setters on Labor Day afternoon. That one should draw a good crowd, since the participants are both East St. Louis teams.

McAteer Glass, the only Blue team with a chance to overtake McAteer, will seek to keep its slate clean at Pocatons Sunday, Mercer will trip the Braves twice this summer, by 4-2 and 4-1 scores.

Monday, Labor Day, Mercer and Granite City Sacred Heart are matched for the final time this season in a 2:30 p.m. game at Wilson Park, and another which should bring out the home folks. The Hearts would like to redeem themselves for a 15-3 loss suffered in another holiday outing last July 4.

Already a cinch entrant in the Red division playoffs, Sacred Heart will not have to travel out of town over the weekend. The Hearts are scheduled to play at Wilson Park Sunday afternoon against Troy's Redbirds, against whom they are 1-1 this year.

McAteer Glass will seek to maintain that slim ray of daylight between itself and Mercer when the Glasmen play at Carpenter Sunday. Maryville will pick up a forfeit win from inactive White City to round out Sunday's schedule.

Carpenter gets the foist victory on Labor Day. Pocatons plays at Troy and Collinsville hosts the Maryville Red Sox, who surprised with an 8-0 win over the Hearts last week.

If the picture isn't completely clear by the time the eight games are in the record books, I-C clubs have one more afternoons—Sunday, Sept. 10—to determine the final division standings and the pairings for the playoffs.

The double-O'Shang n e s s y eliminations get underway on Sept. 17, when the third-place team in each division meets the second-place team on the latter's diamond.

The winners of the Sept. 17 game then will face the first-place teams from their divisions in a single game on Sept. 24. Survivors here will meet in a best two-out-of-three series, the first game to be played Oct. 1 on the Blue division playoff winner's home diamond.

Definitely in the playoffs are five teams — Mercer, Sacred Heart, McAteer, Moose Club and Collinsville — but the order of their finish could be revised this weekend.

The sixth playoff team will be either Pocatons or Carpenter, with the Braves holding the edge at the present time on the basis of their two-game lead over Carpenter on the loss side of the Blue division standings.

Second, Third Places At Stake In Tonight's Church League Finale

The final round of regular season games in the Church League-Splitball league will be played tonight at Wilson Park, and the game's outcome probably will determine the league's second and third-place finishers.

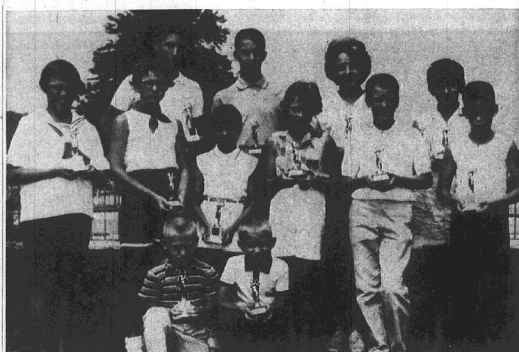

Madison Baptist, already the season champion, will attempt to hand winless Good Shepherd its 12th straight loss in a game at 8:15.

At 7 o'clock, Bethel Community will try to nail down second place when it faces Community Heights. The latter team can tie Bethel for the runner-up spot and force a special playoff if it wins.

The Church Splitball standings:

Harbor Facilities Being

Developed Without Taxes

Significance of recent plans and actions of the Bi-State Development Agency and the City Regional Port District would be hard to overestimate, for they mean enhancement of local business activity, job opportunities and general prosperity at no cost to local residents. Financing plans are diversion of through traffic for port developments here do not involve levying of taxes of any kind.

An example is the mammoth grain elevator project, just announced by the Bi-State Agency, which will be financed by a $5,900,000 bond issue retired from funds derived from operation of the grain elevator and the associated loading and unloading of water, highway and rail cargo carriers. A somewhat related project, Federal Aid Route 151, the riverfront highway that will serve both Bi-State Agency and Port District facilities at the harbor, also will be built with no direct local expense. Added dividends are diversion of through traffic from crowded business district streets, and creation of a new route linked with existing streets at seven points.

The barge-truck-railroad service, combined with spacious adjoining sites for storage and processing, is a rarity that seems destined to attract much shipping and industry to the Quad-Cities. Bringing this about without the burden of property owners and other residents will be a wonderfully worthwhile accomplishment.

Federal Government Again Citing

Need For Water Fluoridation

Whether you are a Democrat, Republican or Independent has no relation, of course, to facts regarding health. Water fluoridation, a boon to dental health, was staunchly advocated by medical and public health authorities under Presidents Truman and Eisenhower, and the change in administration this year has made no difference, for facts remain facts.

Dr. Luther L. Terry, appointed by President Kennedy as the new surgeon-general of the United States, says, "I cannot emphasize too strongly the importance of fluoridation as a means of improving the dental health of children. It has been amply demonstrated that fluoridation will prevent two out of every three dental cavities, and will greatly improve dental health throughout life. I recommend that every community without the protection of fluoridated water supply adopt this safe and effective public health measure for the reduction of (future) dental decay."

Dr. Janet Travell, personal physician to the president, noted this year that "the president and his family drink the water provided by the District of Columbia, which is fluoridated in accordance with the recommendation of the Public Health Service that communities adopt this measure as a means of improving dental health."

The fact that extreme "anti" pamphlets can be published for profit on any subject under the sun does not alter the situation, which is that fluoridation is safe and healthful. It is not only safe, but it is a form of the unfounded fluoridation "hate" propaganda still evidently causes Granite City council members to hesitate.

Madison and Venice aldermen agree on the need. Granite City citizens have approved fluoridation by referendum. There is no real question about whether it should be adopted; 100% of the nation's medical, dental and health authorities attest to this. Democrats and Republicans favor it. What kind of politics will be needed in Granite City to get council action? How many more toothaches must be suffered—and teeth lost—by local children before the city fathers are convinced?

Employees Aid County Solvency

By Withdrawing Raise Request

"I feel that many members of the board do not realize the seriousness of our financial condition," Finance Committee Chairman Leslie Prehn commented last week in discussing county finances before the Board of Supervisors. But the problem was apparent: the county's 178 employees, who voluntarily withdrew a request for $25-a-month pay raises—a unique example of sacrifice in the public interest.

Explaining the decision, Robert McCormick of Granite City, president of the county employees' union, said, "We all know that the county is losing $340,000 in expected income from a ruling on the general tax rate. We realize that to persist in the increase and have it granted would create a hardship on the taxpayers."

Withdrawal of the request is especially noteworthy because there has been no salary boost since 1959, when there was a 42% raise. At that time, the union agreed not to seek more for two years. The promise not only has been kept, but extended by the latest action.

The $340,000 deficit in the current request does not fully solve the county's budget problem, but it helps considerably. And it should leave board members favorably disposed toward future pay adjustments, when the financial outlook has been improved. As in baseball, "There is always next year."

Labor Day Weekend Brings

Highway Traffic Hazards

Labor Day, when men and women of the labor movement labor not, is a 77-year-old commemoration of working people's many contributions to society and living standards. Labor Day is when picnics, park festivals and leisurely pastimes hold sway. Labor Day is when—as on other summer holidays—highways are crowded and the splinter and crash of broken glass and twisted metal bring observation to a halt. Now, parades are infrequent and usually motorized, auto traffic is steadily increasing and holidays are a definite hazard.

During observance of the long Labor Day weekend this year, Quad-Cityans must give thought to extra motorizing caution and full compliance with all traffic laws and safety rules, if they are to resume their labors again after the holiday.

Your Governor Reports
by OTTO KERNER

Through the cooperation of the editor of your newspaper, I am taking this opportunity of presenting a report to the people. In my own opinion, the most effective means of so doing is through the columns of this newspaper, which is in touch, not only with local affairs, but with matters of state-wide interest and importance.

There is today a rebirth of interest on the part of all of our citizens in the future of our country. To help enlarge this interest in government, I am writing this weekly column to fully acquaint you with the problems facing Illinois as a state, as I see them from the Governor's chair in Springfield.

The 72nd General Assembly, which adjourned June 30, passed 1464 bills. Of this total, 497 were Senate bills and 967 were House bills. After almost two months of study and deliberation, I signed into law 1187 pieces of legislation, vetoed 258 and vetoed in part 9.

Some say the number of vetoes is a record. I want one thing understood: I was trying for no records. I was trying to serve the best interest of the people of the State of Illinois. That is the only reason the veto pen was used so vigorously.

As this column progresses, I wish to explain what guided my actions during these months of deliberation as well as to discuss problems of an immediate nature. Legislation which improved the standards of government and, in my opinion, will result in greater benefits to the people received executive approval. Legislation which I did not feel was beneficial to our citizens, I could not support.

In the weeks that follow, I should like to report to you concerning events that have a direct and profound influence upon each of us in Illinois. Next week, I should like to discuss reasons why this administration has taken steps to revitalize the economy of the southern part of our state.

Before closing I would like to thank the editor of this newspaper for making these weekly reports possible.

Best wishes to all.

Peanut Sale Planned

By GC Kiwanis Club

Dates of Sept. 22 and 23 were set for the 30 members of the Granite City Kiwanis Club to embark on their annual peanut sale to raise funds.

So far 2500 bags have been ordered and will be "sold" for whatever people will give, from a nickel on up, according to a club spokesman.

The proceeds will be used to aid underprivileged children through donations to charitable organizations, plus assist in the club's other programs for youngsters.

The peanut drive was announced at the monthly business meeting Monday at the Elk's Club, attended by 20 members and one guest, Julian Valette of the Edwardsville Kiwanis Club.

The local club will not meet next Monday because of the Labor Day holiday, but will meet again the following Monday.

State Traffic Head Gives Madison Report

Besides praising the city of Madison for its 1960 traffic safety record recently, Robert Schmal, Illinois traffic safety director, suggested ways the city could improve its program.

Schmal explained to those attending the meeting that his job was to work in cooperation with the National Safety Council in its unending fight to lower the highway death toll. He said that estimates have been made that their work would save 80,000 lives in the next 10 years. He pointed out that between 35,000 and 40,000 people die in traffic accidents every year.

Switching to the local scene, he pointed out that the progress report he was about to explain for Madison was one of 278 cities nationally from 500 to 10,000 population. He added that the reports were originally started in 1926 on a recommendation by the President's Committee for Traffic Safety.

Using two charts he outlined Madison's scores in the seven main sections of the performance report. One chart Schmal referred to as the "temple of safety" and said that three ingredients are necessary to have a safe, smooth and economical program. They are facts (accurate traffic reports), laws (the enforcement of good ones), and citizen support.

Public Understanding Needed

"The last one is the key to the whole plan because if the citizens understand what you, the official, are doing, then a successful program will be assured," explained Schmal.

After pointing out the need for a policeman to be trained every year in command traffic control, he continued by saying, "According to the accepted formula, one and a half policemen for every 1000 persons, it would appear that Madison has more than it needs. Counting three part-time policemen, your city has a total of 16½ policemen, but the formula means only those who are out on the street doing their job and not back in the office doing clerical work. I understand Madison has four men that do nothing, but office and clerical work; add this to the fact that the formula doesn't consider vacations, sickness, days off, sending a man to training school—so that 16½ total isn't a realistic figure," declared Schmal.

He suggested that two trained civilian clerks be hired to work in the office.

"Over 100 different medical reasons can be given that make a person appear to be drunk—diabetic could be one," said Schmal. "That is why we feel a chemical test for intoxication is needed here. It's a terrible injustice to charge a driver if you aren't sure."

Share The Expense

Schmal suggested a cooperative setup for Madison, Granite City and the surrounding community for use of such testing equipment.

He continued on to the traffic engineering section where he stated the city was to be commended for its curb painting and crosswalks. "I was surprised and pleased that the painting of crosswalks carried out into the neighborhoods and didn't cease in the shopping district," Schmal added.

Next on his priority list was stressing to the city council the need for a zoning or building law requiring off-street parking facilities in connection with new commercial and residential building construction.

He warned that it is a measure taken "a sad experience" of additional vehicles would be on the street causing more traffic problems. Mayor Stephen Maera indicated that not enough funds were available for the time to pursue such plans.

Schmal pointed to the lack of parking meters in the city as a problem. He said that the city can provide free parking, but this is not the solution, he concluded Schmal.

Wensel Brown, superintendent of the Madison Police Department, said that the city has made improvements in off-street parking areas with new schools.

The last major item of concern that the state director expressed was in the educational realm. He was disappointed that there was not a representative from the parochial schools present.

Chief non-public school suggestions were the teaching of traffic safety and that the schools enlist the participation of officials and organizations in conducting a continuing review of needs in school crossing protection.

Schmal closed by praising the city's record in the past year and asking officials to continue with their programs.

The performance report is divided into seven main sections which follow with Madison's scores: 1. Accident records—90, 111; 2. Traffic engineering—85, 111; 3. Police traffic supervision—33, 111; 4. Public traffic safety education—78, 111; 5. Public traffic safety education—78, 111; 6. Public traffic safety education—78, 111; 7. Public traffic safety education—78, 111.

Chief of the Madison Police Department, William L. Beatty, said that the city has made improvements in off-street parking areas with new schools.

Attorney Rules City Not Liable For Damage

An opinion that the city is not liable for damage caused by a sewer backup Aug. 10 in homes along Ash and Willow avenues was given Monday night by City Attorney William L. Beatty in a report to members of the Public Works committee.

Atty. Beatty pointed out a failure on the lift station serving the area apparently had been caused by lightning during a storm that night and early morning rain that sewage backed up into basements in the homes due to a sewer backup.

It is believed the damage occurred about 3 a.m. Beatty explained lift stations were designed to cope with sewage flow at least a 24-hour period during a breakdown, but that storm water lifted the area of the lift station causing a reverse flow. The homeowners are to be informed of the city's decision by Atty. Beatty.

The committee, presided over by Chairman Samuel Whitmer, called upon Comptroller John Doobler to contract contractors to solve the defective downspout problem at the city hall building.

Whitmer explained the committee had been given jurisdiction over all city buildings and that damage to offices in the city hall, caused by downspouts constructed inside the walls which have become defective, can be solved either by replacing the defective pipes or installing downspouts on the outside of the building. Doobler is to determine which solution would be more feasible.

Reassignment is still possible at no extra fee provided applications requesting it are received in Springfield before the deadline. A letter-digit numbering system will be repeated in 1962 for all numbers in excess of 999,999.

State Farm policyholders are entitled because these benefits are in effect right now. They're only mildly surprised, however. State Farm has added new benefits before without increasing rates. But they're really excited, and you will be, too, about the benefits added to State Farm's coverage. Two new Safeguards against Cancellation and Surcharge give written protection against cancellation due to accidents plus the assurance that State Farm's low rates will stay low (no surcharges as a penalty for accidents or traffic violations). And there are five more additional benefits. Call me today or stop in for more information.

Reports Civil Defense Shelter Plans Popular

More than 200 copies of a Civil Defense booklet, "The Family Fallout Shelter," have been picked up from the Madison post office within the last three weeks, according to Postmaster Harry Johnson, who is also Madison Civil Defense head.

Johnson said he is both surprised and pleased at the interest Madison residents have shown in the home shelter, and noted that it apparently is the housewife who is interested enough in the problem of possible radiation dangers to take the free publication.

The booklet contains plans for a basement nuclear fallout shelter which can be built at a cost of $150 to $200, he said.

Johnson said at least 50 copies of a home preparedness handbook giving instructions for storage of food supplies and other necessary items also have been taken from the racks in the post office and Madison schools have ordered 100 copies of "Handbook for Emergencies," a publication giving storm warning information as well as instructions to be followed in case of an enemy attack.

Third Family Accident

Girl, 5, Playing In Her Own Back Yard Struck By Car

The friendly atmosphere of Walker in the rear of her lot, was driving in the driveway at five-year-old Marilyn was coming from behind the house and ran into the left front fender of Hancock's 1950 automobile. It was learned Hancock has no auto liability insurance.

Liability Law
 "Whether the accident was actually the girl's fault or the driver's doesn't matter," a local insurance man explained, "it is the fact that a child cannot be held liable—this driver is liable, and since he had no insurance he has violated a state law."

Whenever Mrs. Walker hears the screeching sound of automobile brakes being rapidly applied she is petrified to step to her door to see the cause of the sudden stop in fear that one of her five children may have been struck down.

Bodily injury resulting from traffic accidents is nothing new to Mrs. Walker, whose oldest child, Clyde Eugene Jr., 9, has been hit twice by cars, and now her second youngest has fallen prey to a motor vehicle.

First Mishap In 1958
 On May 23, 1958, Clyde Eugene Jr. was then six, was hit in Edwardsville where the family was then living. He was treated for abrasions to the shoulders, arms and legs and suffered a brain concussion. The driver had insurance and the hospital bill was $300. In her happiness that her son wasn't killed, Mrs. Walker signed a release with the driver's insurance company and, even today, her son is still bothered with a back injury. The boy still has scars on his head from the accident.

Clyde Jr. was involved in another accident March 10, 1960 when he slipped on the ice in the 1700 block of Spruce street and fell in front of an oncoming automobile that skidded on the ice as the driver tried to avoid hitting the boy. Mrs. Walker's attorney is still trying to get a settlement with the driver's insurance company.

The next recent mishap occurred at 12:35 p.m. Monday Earl Hancock, 24, who rents a three-room house from Mrs.

$2½ Million In State, Federal Aid To Schools

Quad-City schools received over 35% of the federal and state funds disbursed through the Madison county school superintendent's office in the 1960-61 fiscal year. Of the $7,007,187 total, $2,479,130 went to local public and parochial schools. Public schools in the county received $6,957,173, with $2,469,488 being distributed locally, including $1,958,855 to the Granite City district, $467,400 to the Madison district and $48,221 to the Venice district.

Of the $49,993 aid to county parochial schools for lunch and milk programs, the Quad-Cities received $5642-$5483 to the Sacred Heart school in Granite City, $2294 to the St. Elizabeth school in Granite City and $1864 to the St. Mary's school in Madison. St. Joseph's in Granite City and St. Mark's in Venice did not operate cafeterias.

The $49,993 included $17,167 school lunch funds and $32,826 special milk funds. Breakdowns were: Sacred Heart, $2326 lunch and $3156 milk; St. Elizabeth, $1200 lunch and $1043 milk; and St. Mary's, $1342 lunch and $322 milk.

Federal Impact Aid
During the past year, the Granite City district was the only one in the county to receive school construction funds under Public Law 815, in the amount of $240,452.

Granite City and Madison schools were the only to obtain operating and maintenance funds under Public Law 874, Madison receiving $196,343 and Madison $10,408. Both laws relate to "impacted" districts — those affected by the presence of federal installations.

Distributive aid of $5,656,328 to the county included $1,311,724 to Granite City, $124,683 to Madison and $32,868 to Venice, while Granite City received $33,630 of the $51,854 county total on military encampment-orphan-aid-institution aid.

The county's $194,585 total on transportation included $39,326 to Granite City, $5123 to Madison and $2527 to Venice.

Vocational Education
Vocational education aid of $122,465 to Madison county included $21,411 to Granite City, $4092 to Venice and $2545 to Madison, $128,478 for special education included $34,893 to Granite City, $10,192 to Madison and $2312 to Venice, and driver education aid of $69,722 to the county included $17,056 to Granite City and $2376 to Venice.

School lunch aid, totaling $153,102 to public schools in the county, amounted to $37,465 in Granite City, $1441 in Madison and $2258 in Venice.

Special milk funds, aggregating $133,432 in the county, included $27,183 in Granite City, $7006 in Madison and $1761 in Venice.

Quad-City Buying Soars To $8,092,000 In May

Buying in the Quad-Cities during May soared to $8,092,438, led by purchasing of $3,998,731 reported by wholesalers and manufacturers, the Illinois Department of Revenue disclosed this week.

It was the largest monthly total of the year, and compares with $5,292,485 in May 1960. For 1961, the tabulations have been $4,074,151 in January, $4,549,775 in February, $4,957,511 in March and $4,866,320 in April.

Data compiled from reports of 739 Quad-City firms shows May purchasing of $7,129,459 in Granite City — 496 stores; $705,745 in Madison — 138 companies; $198,727 in Venice — 77 businesses; and $58,470 in Mitchell — eight establishments.

Seek Washington Action To Stop IRS Office Loss

The Tri-Cities Trades and Labor Council in a letter written Tuesday asked Senator Everett M. Dirksen to "make proper representations on behalf of our people with the proper officials in the Treasury Department in Washington" in an effort to block loss of the local Internal Revenue Service.

The move came after receipt of a letter last week from Jay G. Philpott, IRS District Director in Springfield, reaffirming his decision to close the Granite City office at the end of September and serve the Quad-City area from offices in East St. Louis and Alton.

Factors Considered
Philpott wrote Labor Council President Edwin Reiske that the decision was made "only after careful consideration of many factors, including economic and population growth and dispersion throughout the total area, availability of public transportation and communications facilities, and ways and means of providing appropriate taxpayer service."

Similar letters had been received earlier by Reiske, and also by Miss Hetty Shepard, business agent of the Retail Store Employees Union Local 435, and Harlan Dobry, manager of the Tri-Cities Chamber of Commerce, whose organizations joined the Labor Council earlier in protesting loss of the office serving the Quad-Cities.

Better Service
"I am confident that we will provide a far higher quality service on a continuing basis any day of the week from either East St. Louis or Alton," Philpott wrote.

"I believe that in several ways the change will work to the best interest of both the people of your community and the government. . . . I believe that I should not change my decision to close the Granite City office."

In the letter to Dirksen, Reiske said the Labor Council believes Philpott will not change his decision, and that if anything is done to prevent closure of the local IRS office, "it will have to come from Mr. Philpott's superiors of the Treasury Department in Washington."

"Frankly, we cannot understand Mr. Philpott's reasoning," the letter concluded. "How can he claim that he can give our people service from an office that would be located miles away?"

Today a tenth of the earth's surface lies under ponderous ice. Antarctica and Greenland account for most of it but there are small mountain glaciers in many parts of the world.

Budget Time Should Result In Reviews Of City Services

(This is the 22nd in a series of articles based on a reorganization study of city government in Granite City by Southern Illinois University.)

Importance of proper budgeting is stressed in the SIU experts' chapter on city finances. "Budget formulation should be the most comprehensive period of review and planning that a city does during the year. It should be engaged in by all supervisory levels."

"Budget preparation should be a process of emanating from the lower levels of the organizations and working up. Supervisory personnel at all levels will understand the problems of the city better when they have participated in the development of the city's program. They will also understand better the necessity of reductions in their departmental budget requests."

Budgeting System 'Weak'
"At present, the city's method of budgeting is weak. It relies primarily on a review of past expenditure experience. Revenues are not taken into account until later in the fiscal year when the tax levy ordinance must be prepared."

"The comptroller assembles expenditure data on the basis of previous years and checks with the department head. No detailed review of the departmental services program is made. No departmental written budget requests and justifications are prepared."

"While Illinois law requires no more than the appropriations ordinance, many progressive cities in the state prepare fine working budgets. Where a budget is prepared, it becomes the basis for organizational review and the guide for operations during the fiscal year."

"The appropriation ordinance becomes merely the legal document which is prepared and passed only after the annual budget has been completed."

Early Start Stressed
"With the city fiscal year commencing on May 1st, budget preparation should begin right after the first of the calendar year. Operating heads should be given full instructions in the preparation of budgetary requests. This should be accomplished in budget meetings and through a budget manual prepared for the purpose."

"The budget preparation schedule aimed at passing the appropriation and tax levy ordinance in late May or early June should allow for a four to six weeks budget review by the comptroller; six weeks for analysis of requests, budget hearings with department heads and preparation of the budget document by the comptroller; mayor and department heads; and four to six weeks budget review by the mayor, council committee, comptroller and Planning Commission, and finally, three weeks for adoption of the budget and preparation and passage of the appropriation and tax levy ordinance by the mayor and council and the city attorney."

"This time schedule is not at all excessive and a complete job can only be done by intensive work on the part of all city officials."

"The preparation of the budget requests on written forms and in as great detail as possible by department heads is considered essential by all authorities in the field and by finance officers who have worked with budgeting."

"Adequate forms and information gathering devices to aid in the preparation of the capital improvements budget and the annual operating budget should be developed."

"Departmental supervisors personnel will find that the time spent analyzing their activities in the preparation of the budget requests forms will be time well spent."

"The comptroller should start work now on developing the budget and accounting material so that the new system can be instituted at the start of the 1962 fiscal year."

"The accounting system should be revised to fit a classification of accounts as set forth in this report. The budget will be both a program guide and a more orderly presentation of city fiscal data."

"In the setting up of a budget program, the mayor as executive head of the city government, and the comptroller should instruct the department heads in the budget manual and forms, assist them in their review of departmental activities and conduct the hearings with department heads."

"The accounting system should be revised to fit a classification of accounts as set forth in this report. The budget will be both a program guide and a more orderly presentation of city fiscal data."

"The comptroller should be responsible for the administration of the budget during the fiscal year, and for the proper reporting of the status of fiscal operations to the mayor and council."

"The mayor, with the executive head of the city government, and the comptroller should instruct the department heads in the budget manual and forms, assist them in their review of departmental activities and conduct the hearings with department heads."

H Bonds To Draw Increased Interest
Quad-City residents who own series H savings bonds bought between June 1952 and January 1957 will be getting extra money in their pockets, according to Madison County Savings Bond Chairman Henry D. Karandjeff.

Karandjeff has pointed to a recent change in Treasury regulations which permits owners of maturing H bonds to continue holding them for an additional 10 years at a higher rate of interest—a straight 3 and 3/4 percent annually. The bonds were originally issued to pay an interest of 2 1/2 percent annually for the nine-year, eight-month life of the bond. Karandjeff estimated that over $9 million worth of the bonds have been purchased in Madison county and of that figure, $2 1/2 million was from the Quad-City area.

Holders of the H bonds will be notified by the Treasury of the extension privilege granted them when they receive their next to last interest check. Owners will not have to do anything about extending their H bonds. This is automatic, Karandjeff explained. As long as the H bond is not redeemed, the owner will continue to draw semi-annual interest checks at the new higher rate for a full 10 years.

Warrant Served
Jess L. Stockton, 46, of 2222 Ohio avenue, was served with a warrant Monday at 2:15 p.m. charging disorderly conduct and assault and battery. The complaint was signed by Dorothy Stockton. He posted $32 cash bail and was released at 4:30 p.m. Monday.

Mental Health Clinic Works To Prevent, Cure Problems

In the past, a favorite symbol between children and many adults was the forerunner touching or circling the temple, meaning the person referred to was "touched" or "crazy."

Nobody can say exactly why or when this facile sign passed out of vogue, but nonetheless it has. More significant, the easy concepts and prejudices which evoked the sign are being worn away.

Persons with mental problems and emotional disturbances can no longer be brushed aside with a gesture of the hand or a hasty word. If for no other reason than the heaviness of their numbers, people with mental problems cannot be ignored nor can they ignore themselves.

Year And Half Old
For Madison county, Jan. 6, 1960, marks the day when ignorance became indefensible. On that day the Madison County Mental Health Clinic opened its offices at 1243a Niedringhaus avenue.

Before then, no low-cost psychiatric help was available in the area. The first mental health clinic had opened in Alton just two months earlier. Now, people with moderate or low incomes or with no income at all have the opportunity for help they could not afford earlier.

The need was and is critical. Workers at the clinic say good reason exists to believe the number of persons needing psychiatric assistance is higher than one in ten. The chances are slim that even most of that 10 to 15% could pay the fees of $25 to $50 charged by private psychiatrists and psychologists.

125 Cases In Month
With a staff of three workers and a secretary, the clinic handles about 125 cases a month. Both in the number of cases handled and the number of hours needed per case, the scope of the program is mammoth.

On the staff are a psychiatrist who spends half his time at the clinic, a clinical psychologist also half-time and a full-time psychiatric social worker. The office secretary is also full-time.

In simplified form, the two steps in the processing of most cases are diagnosis and treatment. Each step generally involves dozens of hours.

15 Hours For Diagnosis
Diagnosis is concerned with a general evaluation of the patient's personality, with particular emphasis on the potential causes underlying the present problem. Observation of the person's general behavior, interviews and psychological tests go into most diagnoses.

The time range for this first step is between five and 15 hours. For children, who make up about half of the clinic's caseload, the time range is between one and five hours.

ed, the process is about 50% longer.

Treatment begins after the workers feel they have an adequate idea of the patients' dominant traits and conflicts. Diagnosis will continue until they have a tenable theory about what is wrong and what they can do about it. Once begun, the second step usually takes between two months and two years.

2-Year Treatment
The major form of treatment used at the clinic is individual analysis. The patient will come to the office at least once a week for a talk with a worker. Informal, the talks take the direction indicated by the worker. He works toward making clear to the patient the exact nature of the emotional illness.

Success of therapy is mainly dependent upon the patient's ability to understand his problem and accept it as a problem. In special cases, the psychiatrist will prescribe drugs, usually tranquilizers or stimulants.

Group Therapy To Begin
A third type of treatment, group therapy, will begin in September when a group of mothers gather each week to consult collectively with a worker and go over each others' difficulties.

Seemingly simple, the process is in reality exceedingly complex. A mother brought in her 11-year-old daughter, Susan, last year because the girl had an up-and-down fear of school.

The parents, both in their forties, had had a great deal of marital conflict, with much arguing taking place in front of the children. The conflict reached a height about six months before the girl became ill when they talked of divorce.

During her parents' bickering, Susan got the idea that she was responsible for the discord in the home, although there was no validity for the thought.

Unconscious Guilt
She felt extremely guilty on the unconscious level and expected some harm to come to her, without realizing the source of the expectation. Because she mother believed that as soon as the clinic staff would discover the problem at school, the girl would return to normal.

School Phobia
Handling Susan's case were Mrs. Jo Crouch, the social worker, and psychologist Dewey Matthews. The girl had become so fearful of school that she became ill repeatedly before leaving in the morning and often she was at school. Finally, the school nurse suggested she be taken to the clinic.

At first, Susan's parents were convinced something had happened at school to cause the illness. They had her classes rearranged, moved her to a different teacher and made other minor changes, but her symptoms remained unaltered.

The girl was unable to tell Mrs. Crouch what at school was frightening her, but she reported having nightmares in which other children surrounded her, attempting to smother her, and teachers pursued her with knives.

Whole Family Interviewed
An evaluation period followed Susan's coming to the clinic. She and her parents were interviewed in turn by the social worker, psychologist and psychiatrist. Conclusion was that her problem stemmed from the home and had only come to a head at school.

She was described by her parents as well-behaved, quiet and shy. She was very conscientious in carrying out responsibilities given her, they said.

The parents, both in their forties, had had a great deal of marital conflict, with much arguing taking place in front of the children. The conflict reached a height about six months before the girl became ill when they talked of divorce.

During her parents' bickering, Susan got the idea that she was responsible for the discord in the home, although there was no validity for the thought.

Unconscious Guilt
She felt extremely guilty on the unconscious level and expected some harm to come to her, without realizing the source of the expectation. Because she did not associate her home with the anxiety, she felt that school was the only other apparent source.

After going to the clinic for treatment for six months, Susan lost all the overt symptoms of fear and felt relatively comfortable at school. Counseling of the parents brought them a new understanding of both their own problems and their effect on their children.

Childhood Regression
A similar case of a girl's problems at school being caused in her home is still being handled at the clinic. Carol, a 15-year-old high school student, continually regressed to thumb-sucking whenever she was placed in a tense situation. Despite having above-average intelligence, she was unable to concentrate or compete at school and complained of having no friends.

Carol is the younger of two daughters of upper-middle class parents. Workers describe her mother as intelligent, attractive and sophisticated. Her father, in his late forties, was forced into semi-retirement by a heart disease. Highly capable, efficient and well-organized, he was president of a small corporation before retiring.

Her older sister is in college making outstanding grades. She had always excelled in everything she tried and set a difficult standard for Carol to achieve.

Speech Delayed
Because Carol's father expected so much of himself and her sister, he was also inclined, without realizing it, to expect so much of Carol. One of the earliest effects came when her ability to talk was delayed until she was almost three years old.

Whenever her parents expected achievement of her, Carol would revert to childish behavior. It was a subconscious attempt to tell them she could not produce as much as they wanted.

This information unfolded as the clinic staff went through diagnosis of the case. For months of tests and interviews were needed to reach this point.

Granite City PRESS-RECORD Page 36 Thurs., Aug. 31, 1961

Carol is just beginning treatment.

The case of Carol and her parents underscores a situation the clinic staff often encounters. The parents were well educated, both having graduated from college with liberal arts degrees. Yet neither was able to "see through" a problem, about which only they knew all the facts.

Understanding Needed
Mrs. Crouch says that the increase in both popular and academic knowledge of psychology and sociology is a good sign, but that a large gap exists between "knowing about" mental problems and truly understanding them.

To broaden knowledge about emotional problems in general and the work of the clinic in particular, staff members and members of the county mental health society give frequent talks on topics related to mental health.

Also included is a program of preventive measures, to be promulgated in lectures, posters and leaflets. Mrs. Crouch said as soon as psychiatric treatment becomes a more exact science, the positive side will come to be emphasized more than the negative. Quoting an Illinois psychologist, she said "Mental health is more contagious than mental illness."

New Psychiatrist
Heading the local staff is psychiatrist Dr. Robert J. Leider. Joining the clinic July 1 of this year, Dr. Leider took Phi Beta Kappa honors while earning his doctor of medicine degree and is the former head of the social maladjustment unit at Malcolm Bliss mental health center in St. Louis. He resides at University City.

Clinical Psychologist Dewey Matthews from Florissant, Mo., is a candidate for a Ph.D. degree in psychology at Washington University, St. Louis. The social worker, Mrs. Crouch, from East Alton, holds a master's degree in the field from the University of Missouri and has had eight years' experience. Mrs. Harriet Mercer, 2210 Lindell Blvd., is the office secretary.

Dr. Charles Ottensmeyer, who works at the Alton clinic, is medical director of the two clinics. Stance Crouch, Mrs. Crouch's husband, is a social worker at the Alton clinic.

Furnishings Donated
The staff gives credit for the comparative success of its first full year of operation to the generous donations of Granite City residents, businesses and organizations.

The three offices were furnished by civic groups last year, while the year a dozen businesses united to donate furniture and equipment for the children's play therapy room. Local unions supplied the clinic sign.

Still needed are a used, but workable, tape recorder; used rugs of any size; an apartment-size refrigerator; wall pictures; a table tennis table; and used electric heaters.

Graduate Students
Biggest need, however, is added space and personnel. The clinic has Dr. J. Leider currently is investigating the possibility of expanding offices further in the same building. Added personnel will be gotten this winter when two graduate social work students from St. Louis University will spend three days a week at the clinic.

Further plans include providing a consultation service for professional men, such as ministers, social workers and law enforcement officers. To keep interested persons abreast of innovations, the clinic sends a newsletter four times a year.

The original stimulus for the clinic and its present directors is the Madison County Mental Health Society. A 36-member board headed by Mrs. Earl Gaylord Alton, sets policy and hires the staff.

Quadrant members are Dr. Folecia Koch, vice-president; G. W. Hoelscher, treasurer, and Arthur Christie, Miss Mary Cowart, Dr. James C. Evers, Mrs. Eva Meier, Mrs. Robert Chapman, Elmer Dehn, Edwin Rolake and Henry D. Karand-jeff.

Total budget for the two county clinics for 1961 is $68,453, of which the local United Fund is contributing $7500. Of the total figure, $47,500 comes from the state with the remainder made up of individual contributions, donations from other county United Funds or Community Chests and fees from patients.

For 1962, the budget total is $75,800, with the UF pre-campaign allocation set at $8000, an increase of 6.6%.

AGAIN SEES ANSWERS ON POOL QUESTION

To the Editor:
"Swimming, the act or art of floating or moving progressively in the water by the hands and feet." That's how the dictionary defines swimming; isn't it a shame that your children and my children will never get to experience this act or art. At least they won't enjoy their swimming in the city of Madison, unless something happens to reopen our present waterless pool.

No comment or remark of any kind has been made by the person or persons responsible for the closing of our swimming pool. I urge each and every citizen of Madison, who is interested in a safe supervised swimming area for their children, to ask your alderman or any other city official to give you a reasonable and sensible answer to the pool question. Write a letter to your mayor and ask him to answer your question; after all you elected him to represent your interests in the community to the best of his ability.

Summer is fading away and winter is creeping up on us, undoubtedly the swimming pool controversy will die for awhile. Don't let this happen, keep asking questions and keep on working for the safety and benefit of your children and city. Soon or later, public opinion will demand and receive an open answer to the Madison swimming pool being closed.

In my own possibly mistaken opinion, I think the pool is closed because of the non-acceptance of colored and white children swimming together. Is this true? I don't know, and how can anyone know when no public state? How many Madison youths are ment whatsoever comes from going to drown next summer?

AD FROM TEENAGERS CITED BY READER

To the Editor:
There have been so many complaints about teenagers here lately. I feel it unjust. Within the past two weeks twice they have come to the rescue.

One nine p. m., my sister ran out of gas at a red traffic light. Three teen-age boys pushed the auto to the side and went to get her some gas. She tried to pay them but they wouldn't accept it.

Sunday I carelessly drove into a culvert till the auto was on a slant. Again to the rescue about 12 teenage boys lifted the car and pushed it out of the culvert. As upset as I was I don't know what I'd have done without them as I had called three towing places without any luck. Thanks again boys. Grateful.

Niedringhaus MYFTo Begin Ticket Project

The youth fellowship of Niedringhaus Memorial Methodist Church will begin an advance sale of tickets for the St. Louis Hawks' home NBA professional basketball opener of Oct. 21 in this area tomorrow.

The sales campaign is being staged to help finance an MYFT "Go See You" next spring in New York, where MYFTers plan to visit national Methodist offices in New York and related institutions along the way.

Price of the general admission tickets are $1.50. Don Mitzer of the MYFT said all youth of the church between the ages of 12 and 21 will have tickets. They also will be available at Graham's Book Store and at the Mrs. Seibold bake shops.

The group also plans to sell tickets at several sidewalk locations on Fridays and Saturdays prior to the game.
